

Errata Sheet for Alaska State 4-H Horse Contest Rules Book Updated October 2008

Clothing for ALL Contests:

Standard English or Western Attire must be worn during the contest and at the awards presentation. No open toed shoes or sandals, crop-top shirts or shorts will be allowed. Shirts must be tucked in.

Horse Judging:

Clothing for FFA during Horse Judging:

FFA will be joining the horse judging portion of our contest this year. They will need to be in official FFA attire in order to participate.

Horse Judging Hat/Helmet Rule:

Hats are prohibited in the judging area. A hat or helmet is optional when giving reasons.

Horse Bowl:

Contestants and Eligibility:

1.
 - a. The state contest has enough space to handle 12 teams. We will take as many as possible for the contest, but if the number exceeds 12 then districts who are bringing more than 2 teams will be asked to remove a team. It is important that the districts have a ranking order in place in case this happens. This could be done by holding a district contest

Horse Bowl Questions:

We are deleting note 1 and 2. This means no questions are required to be submitted.

3. Will change to

Questions will come from the official reference sources only which are:

- Performance Horse Manual
- Horse Industry Handbook
- Horse Judging Manual (University of Kentucky)
- Hunt Seat & Jumper Manual (Pacific Northwest)
- Dressage Project Manual (Oregon State)
- Trail Riding (Ohio State)
- Colt and Horse Training Manual (Oregon State)
- Training Horses Yearlings to Five-Year Olds (Washington State)

Demonstration and Public Speaking Contests:

An individual will be allowed to enter one of these contests, not both.
